

House Amends Sales Tax On Eve Of Vote

Harrisburg, (AP)—The Republican House tacked on some new amendments to its proposed 2 per cent sales tax bill last night and set the controversial issue down for a possible vote today.

There was some doubt, however, that the new tax would be put to a roll call unless a count of noses showed sufficient GOP votes to pass the measure.

Speaker Charles C. Smith said the 109-member Republican bloc would hold a closed caucus today before the regular House session to consider the sales tax.

Smith insisted to reporters enough Republican votes were lined up to approve the levy despite indications from some rank-and-file GOP representatives they would vote against it.

The House leadership needs 105 votes to approve the tax since the 98-member Democratic minority has counted itself solidly against it.

Rep. August Metz (R-Pike), said, on the other hand, that 25 Republican representatives would vote against the levy.

The new exemptions inserted into the measure removed the exemptions on purchases of farm and other machinery and spelled out specifically that the value of used automobiles traded in on purchase of new cars would not be subject to the levy.

Both House and Senate held short sessions to permit members to attend Gov. John S. Fine's reception to the legislature last night at the Executive Mansion.

The Senate rejected another major proposal by the Chesterman committee. This one would have merged the state police and the State Parole Board with the State Justice Department.

The Chesterman committee, which made a study of government agencies, said such a merger would save $2,364,000 in two years. However, heads of the departments disputed the estimate and said there was little or no duplication of services.

Prices Dip As Cattle Flood Market

Chicago, (AP)—Cattle receipts swamped livestock markets yesterday and prices dipped as much as $1.50 a hundred pounds at the Chicago stockyards.

Receipts in Chicago were 29,000 head, the largest for a single day since August 26, 1946, and the highest for a day in April since 1926. Cattle receipts at 12 midwestern markets totaled 112,500, compared with 94,800 last Monday.

Mark Pickell, secretary of the Corn Belt Livestock Feeders Association, said retail prices of beef have been lowered and there is a "huge demand" at present price levels.

He said many cattle were put on feed in the Midwest in October and November, and these now are ready for market. Livestock market sources said the improved Korean War situation and declining commodity prices generally also might be causing producers to sell.

Family Of Six Burns To Death

Ellenville, N. Y. (AP)—An heroic father died with his wife and four small sons yesterday as he tried to rescue them from their blazing century-old farm home.

The flames roared quickly through the recently-remodeled frame house. Firemen said the blaze may have started in the basement or the kitchen. The cause was not known.

The fully-clothed body of the father, Vaughn Decker, 30, was found on the living room floor. He had just returned from his night shift job as guard at the Woodbourne Correctional Institution near here when the fire broke out.

Burned beyond recognition were the other members of his family—Mrs. Mary Decker, 27, Richard, 5, Stephen, 4, Carey, 3, and Vaughn, Jr., 8 months.

Curb Proposed On Poison Bait

Harrisburg, (AP)—The State Game Commission would have to obtain permission from the land owner before scattering poison bait to cut down wildlife predators under legislation introduced in the House last night.

Rep. George A. Goodling (R-York) sponsored an administration-backed bill to specifically authorize the use of poison in drives against predators such as foxes but to require clearance by landowners first.

Last year, Thomas R. Frye, executive director of the State Game Commission, was acquitted of trespass charges in a poison bait drive against foxes in South-eastern Pennsylvania.

Eisenhower To Throw Out First Ball

Augusta, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower switched signals last night and decided to throw out the first baseball when the Washington Senators and the World Champion New York Yankees play in Washington Thursday.

James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, announced that when Eisenhower returns to the nation's capital Thursday to address an editors meeting he will stay on long enough to go out to Griffith Stadium to open the game.

The Senators and the Yankees had been scheduled to open the American League season yesterday but the game was rained out.

Eisenhower flew to Augusta yesterday for a vacation of golf. He had passed up the baseball game and assigned Vice President Nixon to toss out the first ball.

Reed Attempts To Force Vote On Tax Slash

Washington, (AP)—Chairman Reed (R-N.Y.) of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee filed a petition yesterday seeking to force a House vote on his long-frozen bill to cut individual income taxes.

The petition requires the signatures of 218 House members to remove the bill from the House Rules Committee and put it directly before the chamber.

Reed's tax bill has been pigeonholed for weeks by the rules committee, which controls the flow of bills onto the House floor.

The measure has been held up ever since Republican leaders on both sides of Capitol Hill let it be known they favored going along with President Eisenhower's call for postponing any tax cuts until a balanced federal budget is in sight.

But Reed told the House yesterday: "Taxes can be reduced without interfering with budget balancing. This is something the people expect and to which they are entitled."

The New Yorker's bill would cut income taxes about 10 per cent annually beginning July 1 instead of waiting until Dec. 31 when an automatic tax cut of that amount is scheduled to go into effect unless Congress acts to postpone it.

France May Delay Okay Of NATO Pact

Washington, (AP)—French Defense Minister Rene Pleven was reported yesterday to feel that Russia's current peace gestures may delay French approval of the plan for a Western European army.

Members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee with whom Pleven talked behind closed doors quoted him as saying ratification would be delayed by the Soviet peace offensive and its effect on France's internal political situation.

But Committee Chairman Wiley (R-Wis) said Pleven told the senators he was "not at all pessimistic" about eventual approval by France of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) pact.

Other committee members said Pleven told them he felt approval would come, but he could not predict, as he might have a few weeks ago, that ratification would come this summer.

Free Fishing Licenses

Harrisburg, (AP)—A bill providing free fishing licenses for war veterans hospitalized in Pennsylvania was unanimously approved by the Senate last night.

German Protestant Bishop To Test Russian Intentions

Berlin, (AP)—Protestant Bishop Otto Dibelius, permitted to enter East Germany for the first time in months, decided yesterday to test whether the cold war is easing up against the church.

Bishop Dibelius, leader of 40 million Protestants in East and West Germany, disclosed that he has sent a new appeal to Gen. Vassily Chuikov, Soviet occupation chief, to let the contents be known "until we see whether and how the Russians react."

In recent weeks peace-scented breezes have been blowing from Moscow toward the West, but the hopes thus raised for political settlements have not been matched by any slackening of pressure on the church.

Germany's ranking churchman sought Chuikov's intervention at a time when East German Communists are preparing to outlaw all Protestant youth activities in the Soviet zone.

In a terror campaign against church influence with young East Germans, Communist secret police since February have sent three pastors to prison, arrested nine others, and threatened many more.

The Communist government is also drawing up measures to seize church welfare and cultural properties.

The 72-year-old bishop has kept up a running fight for church rights in the Soviet zone since 1945.

Allied Planes Fly Friendly Vigil Over Red Convoy Carrying POWs

Ryan Charged With Stealing Union Funds

New York, (AP)—Dock boss Joseph P. Ryan was released under $3,500 bond yesterday accused of milking his AFL International Longshoremen's Association of $11,390 for personal luxuries.

The I.L.A. president was tense and nervous as he pleaded innocent. He had ducked into a Roman Catholic church to say a prayer before surrendering to Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan.

No trial date was set on a 30-count larceny indictment that could land the 69-year-old Ryan behind bars for the rest of his life. Conviction on all counts carries a maximum of 165 years in prison.

The indictment was a direct result of last January's State Crime Commission hearings. Commission evidence pictured Ryan's I.L.A. as a racket-ridden haven of thieves and murderers.

Ryan was accused by a grand jury of setting up a so-called anti-Communist fund with union money, then dipping into it for such personal items as clothes, golf club fees, summer home expenses, and funeral expenses for a sister-in-law.

The beefy union leader, a stubble of beard dark against his heavy jowls, trudged five blocks in a drizzling rain to post bond and issue the following statement through an attorney:

"Joseph P. Ryan pleads innocent to the charges contained in the indictment. We ask the public to withhold judgment on these charges. . . . Mr. Ryan will establish that everything he did, as president of the I.L.A., was done lawfully and properly, with the knowledge and consent of the international and for its benefit and the benefit and protection of the I.L.A. members."

Dist. Atty. Hogan hinted that new charges may be placed against Ryan after further investigation.

The indictment was a stiff blow at Ryan's tottering 25-year reign over the rough, tough dockers' union. He already is on the spot with AFL leaders, angered by State Crime Commission evidence against I.L.A. top brass.

Ryan has been president of 65,000 quick-tempered East Coast longshoremen since 1927. He became the union's $20,000 a year lifetime president in 1943. Ryan also is an AFL vice president.

Mothers Protest Ammunition Train

Spotswood, N. J. (AP)—Officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad last night issued orders that no more ammunition trains are to be parked on railroad sidings in this town.

The officials were spurred to action by 10 irate mothers who kept their children out of school yesterday, protesting the presence of an ammunition train on a siding near the school.

The train, apparently enroute to the Earle Ammunition Depot, bore signs reading "Inflammable and explosive."

Change In Voting Rules Approved

Harrisburg, (AP)—The House approved unanimously last night a plan to permit voters to cast a ballot even if they move to another election district after the deadline for changing registration has expired.

The measure, sent to the Senate, would have state-wide application except for the city of Philadelphia.

German Protestant Bishop To Test Russian Intentions

Berlin, (AP)—Protestant Bishop Otto Dibelius, permitted to enter East Germany for the first time in months, decided yesterday to test whether the cold war is easing up against the church.

Bishop Dibelius, leader of 40 million Protestants in East and West Germany, disclosed that he has sent a new appeal to Gen. Vassily Chuikov, Soviet occupation chief, to let the contents be known "until we see whether and how the Russians react."

In recent weeks peace-scented breezes have been blowing from Moscow toward the West, but the hopes thus raised for political settlements have not been matched by any slackening of pressure on the church.

In a terror campaign against church influence with young East Germans, Communist secret police since February have sent three pastors to prison, arrested nine others, and threatened many more.

The Communist government is also drawing up measures to seize church welfare and cultural properties.

The 72-year-old bishop has kept up a running fight for church rights in the Soviet zone since 1945.

Tobyhanna Groups Decide To Make Repairs To Lake No. 1; $15,000 Fund To Be Raised

Tobyhanna—Property owners, businessmen and citizens here will pay for putting Lake No. One back in business here. Cost: $15,000.

That was the decision taken by private owners in the lake area after a State turn-down on requests to repair the dam which was shattered by last Summer's violent storm and flood.

Accused Spy Pleads Guilty

Washington, (AP)—Austrian-born Otto Verber, a former U.S. Army intelligence officer, pleaded guilty yesterday to taking part in a conspiracy to spy on American military secrets for Soviet Russia.

The 31-year-old defendant faces a possible maximum sentence of 10 years in prison.

Verber pleaded guilty to one count of a two-count indictment. The second count, involving a possible death sentence, was held in abeyance until he comes up for sentence.

The defendant made his surprise move in Federal Court after Asst. U.S. Atty. William Hitz agreed to accept a plea to the lesser count only, at least for the time being.

There were indications that the government might want to use Verber as a witness at the forthcoming trial of his co-defendant and brother-in-law, Kurt Ponger, 39 also a native of Austria.

Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff said he will impose sentence on Verber later. Presumably this will be after Ponger's trial.

Verber and Ponger were indicted on charges of serving as agents of a Red spy ring directed from the Soviet Embassy in Washington. They were arrested in Vienna in mid-January and brought here for trial.

Ponger indicated through his court-appointed attorney that he intends to fight the charges. He is scheduled to go on trial next Monday.

Morse Blocks Ammo Inquiry

Washington, (AP)—Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) blocked a resumption of the ammunition inquiry yesterday by insisting that no committees meet while the Senate is debating the submerged oil lands bill.

Unanimous Senate approval is required for its committees to carry on their work while the Senate is in session. Usually this is granted as a matter of course, but Morse refused to go along yesterday.

He set forth his position last week when he said the submerged lands issue is so important that all senators ought to be present when it is being debated. The measure would give coastal states the right to develop the mineral riches in the ocean bed for specified distances off-shore.

Tides Flood Dutch Island

Amsterdam, The Netherlands, (AP)—North Sea waters, whipped by storms, again have swept over the Island of Schouwen-Duiveland, one of the hardest hit areas in the costly February floods.

Inhabitants fled to attics as one of the main dikes collapsed under pressure of rising spring tides and nearly 3,500 acres of newly reclaimed land were re-flooded. There was no loss of life.

40,000 Ford Workers Idled

Detroit, (AP)—The 13-day-old strike of a small Michigan parts plant yesterday idled 40,000 Ford Motor Company workers in 15 of that company's 19 assembly plants across the nation.

Negotiations in the strike of 2,200 CIO workers at the parts factory in Monroe continued. Production rates were at issue.

Ford and the CIO United Auto Workers reported "no progress" after Sunday's session.

The strikers walked out April 1. They charged a speedup. The company denied this.

A Ford spokesman said that 4,200 of some 7,000 idled workers at its Dearborn assembly plant would report back to work Monday.

The return will be made possible by "reshuffled stock" and completing of cars without adding certain scarce equipment, management said.

The plant closings affected production of Ford, Lincoln and Mercury cars.

Judge Sentences Bibalo To Die For Shema Killing

Montrose, (AP)—Joseph Bibalo, 20, of Uniondale, was sentenced yesterday to death in the electric chair in the fatal shooting of 44-year-old Anthony Shema of Forest City.

Judge Edward P. Little handed down the death sentence in Susquehanna County Court.

Bibalo, a reformatory parolee, was charged with luring Shema to a lonely spot in the woods near Elk Mountain, in December 1951, on the pretense of showing him a good place to hunt. Bibalo was convicted last April.

The prosecution charged that he used Shema's own gun for the killing and then stole the victim's auto.

Two More Groups Of Prisoners To Leave Tomorrow

Munsan, Tuesday, (AP)—U. N. warplanes roared northward across the cold Korean skies today on a hunt for the first convoy of Allied sick and wounded rolling southward from Communist prison camps to freedom.

The planes had a new mission: to fly a friendly vigil over the convoy.

Their job was to make sure—to make absolutely sure—that other Allied warplanes intent on their hunt for Red transport do not bomb and blast the freedom convoy by mistake.

A Fifth Air Force spokesman said the convoy might not be sighted until 2 p.m. (Monday midnight, EST) because of a low ceiling in Northwestern Korea.

Allied planes will not dip under the clouds looking for the convoy. "We'll wait until the ceiling lifts," he said.

The Reds said two more convoys would start out tomorrow from camps in the mountainous north-central section of Communist Korea. In all, the Reds will send home 120 Americans and 480 other captives, mostly South Koreans.

If Communist advances proved true, the first convoy left the Chongna camp in extreme Northwestern Korea 14 miles from the Yalu River border to Manchuria at 6 a.m. Marked with bright red flags and banners on each truck the convoy will take 2½ days to reach the Red armistice camp at Kaesong. The actual exchange will start Monday.

Red staff officers disclosed at Pannunjom today that a 25-truck convoy would start out at 6 a.m. tomorrow from the Manpo camp on the Yalu River 125 miles inland from the Yellow Sea. A second convoy of 20 trucks, the Reds said, would leave at the same time from the Pyoktong prison camp, 38 miles southwest of Manpo.

The Chongna camp, 27 miles east of the Yalu River delta city of Sinuiju, is only 175 air miles from Kaesong. Manpo is 225 air miles away. But the distances are much farther on the winding mountainous roads.

The Red Cross in Tokyo had a good word for the home folks today. As soon as the disabled repatriates are cleared by medical officers in Japan, they may make free telephone calls to their homes in the U. S. The medical checkups should take about two days, the Red Cross said.

But in some cases, the clearance will be quicker and repatriates may be homeward bound by plane before they have an opportunity to call. In that case, the Red Cross said, they will be offered free calls from the first U. S. airport they reach.

The staff officers at their meetings today accepted drafts in Korean, Chinese and English of the administrative details for the disabled prisoner exchange. Allied and Red liaison officers agreed Saturday to exchange 600 disabled Allies for 5,800 disabled Reds.

While preparations were speeded on both sides for the swap, the South Korean government demanded that its officials be allowed to re-screen 5,100 North Koreans due to be sent home.

Foreign Minister Pyun Yung Tai told newsmen in Pusan "that they refuse to be repatriated should not be returned against their will."

There was no immediate comment on Yuen's statement from Allied or U. N. Command officials at Pusan, Seoul or Munsan.

However, the U. N. liaison team headed by Rear Adm. John C. Daniel stipulated in negotiations that no prisoner would be forced to return to Communist rule against his wishes.

Phone 3680-R-2

Next meeting of the Jolly Jane Club has been set for April 21, in the home of Mrs. Vernon Wallace, Stroudsburg.

Ada Mae Frailey, student at Mansfield State Teachers College, motored to Camp Breckenridge, Ky., with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Saxton, Granville Summit, for the Easter holiday. There they visited her fiancé, Pvt. Wayne Saxton, and attended Easter Dawn services. Miss Frailey resumed studies at M.S.T.C. Tuesday, April 7.

The names of the ushers at St. John's Lutheran Easter services were inadvertently omitted in a previous article. Lawrence Swink and Alvin Swink served at the Easter Dawn services and Haviland Heller and Robert Fields Sr. served at the 2:30 worship.

Mrs. Beatrice Swink and son, Ronald Swink, were dinner guests Easter Sunday in the home of son Lawrence Swink and his wife, of Stokes Mill. Clair Swink was also present.

State Gives County Jail Good Rating

Sheriff Jacob Altomero and county commissioners were commended yesterday in a State report on condition of the county jail.

The inspection was made March 31—an annual affair—and a letter from Fred W. Brady, director of the Bureau of Penal Affairs reported the result.

The report of the inspection gave "good" ratings in every phase of the prison's administration. There were no recommendations or suggestions for varying present procedure.

"The physical condition of the prison is good," Brady wrote in part. "The Department of Welfare commends (commissioners) and the sheriff in maintaining a safe and sanitary institution."

Make The Job Permanent

Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce membership campaign moved up to about 339 members yesterday when over 136 memberships were reported by members and directors.

At the new rate of $40 per membership, this is a distinct achievement and augurs well for success of an effort to ultimately bring total membership to 600.

While yesterday's report meeting with Campaign Chairman H. G. Sanborn, Jr. ended the contest among campaigners for a trip to Florida, it did not end the effort to bring in memberships.

There are still some 400 prospect cards in hands of workers. Spurred by a special clean-up committee, campaigners holding these cards will move out in the next two weeks to complete their contacts.

There are estimates that within that time they will pick up another 200 memberships on the record of the Chamber's great industrial expansion performance of the past few months, and its plans for future industrial development—not to mention many other worthwhile projects.

We are convinced this estimate is sound. It can and should be done with all promptness.

We'd like to make one suggestion. Let a permanent membership committee be created to function continuously. A regular check of memberships must be made—as a service to members and to provide a constant flow of memberships to the organization.

Headache Cure

A couple of doctors reporting in a medical journal say that on the basis of clinical experience with 500 patients they have found "neck-stretching" a highly successful treatment for chronic headaches.

Since the Russian Communists have made something of a specialty of stretching necks in the past 30 years, they evidently have cured a lot of headaches.

As a matter of fact, when a Kremlin operative gets through stretching a neck, nothing at all aches.

Wouldn't you like to have the hemp concession in the Soviet Union?

Ask The Man Who...

The Mosler Safe Co., which knows a tribute when it sees one, has distributed photostats of a testimonial letter recently written by a frustrated safe-cracker.

This disillusioned yegg reports hacking doggedly away at the Mosler safe in Montgomery Ward's San Bernardino, Calif., store.

Recognizing defeat, he sat down at one of Montgomery Ward's typewriters and wrote a gracious tribute to the safe-makers in which he outlined the futility of his efforts.

"Obviously," he wrote in part, "your safe has served its purpose well. It has undergone one of the most thorough attempts at safe-cracking in the history of that profession, and the operation was conducted by an experienced person at this particular profession."

The Mosler people have our whole-hearted congratulations on this grass roots acclaim for their stout products, and for beginning what may be a new era in advertising testimonials.

This era may see the end of endorsements by debutantes, dowagers, doctors, overdressed cowboys and unimaginative outfielders.

It recognizes that the final authority on a product is the person for whom or against whom it is designed.

In the case of safes that would be a safe-cracker and in the case of rat traps it's a rat.

The Once Over —by H. I. Phillips

Changing The Script
The time has come for us to be good," said the Big Bad Wolf.

"Why?" demanded the First Deputy Big Bad Wolf and all the other deputy wolves, astounded.

"Because it is time for a change," said the B. B. W. "We have made the wolf look so frightful that the sheep are taking jujitsu lessons. The hour is here when we make the big switch. We must now behave less wolflike and show some of the instincts of the fox."

"But we are not really wolves. This is a Wall Street invention," said the First Deputy Big Bad Wolf.

"Of course," said the B. B. W., "but things are not going according to the script. I am reversing it. We are now going to play the role of Little Red Riding Hood and grandma instead of the wolf."

"It is impossible to play both roles. The wolf is in grandma's bed with grandma inside when Little Red Riding Hood arrives," argued a deputy.

"We can veto that angle," snapped the B. B. W.

"How?" asked the others.

"Ventriloquism. The wolf will be a dummy. We shall play Riding Hood," explained the B. B. W.

"But what about grandma?" he was asked.

"We vote her out as a violation of the procedural rules," said the B. B. W.

"What brings Little Red R. H. to the cabin?" asked the Second Deputy Big Bad Wolf.

"She is a silly bourgeois and thinks grandma is there."

"But what will she think the wolf is doing in grandma's bed?"

"We will explain that he got into it through a policy that has been abandoned and repudiated," said the B. B. W.

"When Riding Hood arrives and sees a wolf in the bed, will she not be terrified?" he was asked.

"Not by this kind of wolf. It will be a new type of wolf, hitherto unseen. It will be playing "Can't We Be Friends?" on a concertina, composing new peace notes, making toys for kiddies and acting as head of a committee conducting a drive to get the children to send their Christmas desires to Santa Claus early explained the B. B. W.

"Well, when the girl says, 'What big eyes you have!' what will the wolf say?" asked the deputies.

"He will say, 'The better to convey a warm message of love, my dear!'"

"And when she says, 'What big ears you have!'"

"He will reply, 'The easier to wiggle them for your amusement!'"

"But what happens when Little Red Riding Hood says, 'What BIG TEETH you have!'"

"The deputies all asked at once.

"The wolf whips them out, explains they are false teeth and says he is for tooth extraction all over the world and a regular system of periodic inspection. Is everything clear?" asked the B. B. W.

"No. What about the big scene where the wolf chases Riding Hood all over the cabin?"

"In the new switch we have Riding Hood chase the wolf," explained the B. B. W., gleefully.

"How about the woodchoppers who rush in to save her? Can they be fooled?" asked the Third Deputy B. B. W.

"That's my belief, and the key to the whole situation," concluded the B. B. W., his eyes agleam with confidence.

George Sokolsky Says...

Sen. Bricker Introduces Resolution To Protect People's Rights Against Treaties

The Bricker Amendment

Because the United States has become involved in a vast structure of unusual treaties, of which the Charter of the United Nations is an example, and of which the Covenant on Tuman Rights may one day present a problem, Senator John W. Bricker and 63 other Senators have introduced a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, designed to safeguard the rights of the American people under that document.

A treaty, signed and ratified, becomes the law of the land. The Constitution, it is now stands, refers to this subject as follows:

"This Constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any thing in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding."

While lawyers may argue over the exact meaning of this provision, the actual effect is that a treaty may alter Federal, State and municipal laws. In the case of the United States, an intermediate court applied provisions of the Charter of the United Nations to outlaw a long existing California State law. This was local legislation; yet it was vetoed by the results of an international conference which, having worked out a treaty, destroyed the rights of a State which Congress could not do under the Constitution.

John Foster Dulles commented on this question in Louisville, Kentucky before he became Secretary of State:

"The treaty-making power is an extraordinary power, liable to abuse. Treaties make international law and also they make domestic law. Under our Constitution, treaties become the supreme law of the land. They are, indeed, more supreme than ordinary laws for Congressional laws are invalid if they do not conform to the Constitution, whereas treaty law can override the Constitution. Treaties, for example, can take powers away from the Congress and give them to the President; they can take powers from the States and give them to the Federal Government or to some international body, and they can cut across the rights given the people by the constitutional Bill of Rights."

This, it seems, is a correct view of the situation as it now exists, and that Senator's amendment is designed to correct, Mr. Dulles' view is accepted by most constitutional lawyers.

The first three provisions of the proposed amendment read:

"Section 1. A provision of a treaty which denies or abridges any right enumerated in this Constitution shall not be of any force or effect.

"Sec. 2. No treaty shall authorize or permit any foreign power or any international organization to supervise, control, or adjudicate rights of citizens of the United States within the United States enumerated in this Constitution or any other matter essentially within the domestic jurisdiction of the United States.

"Sec. 3. A treaty shall become effective as internal law in the United States only through the enactment of appropriate legislation by the Congress."

The fourth provision deals with "executive or other agreements" and applies the same rule to them.

Our new international associations require some fundamental adjustments in the relationship of treaties to our political structure as defined by the Constitution. It was never intended that the United Nations, for instance, should legislate for the American people or abridge their rights. While it may be sound to join such an organization, it cannot be proper that by the mere act of joining it, even by treaty, the relations between citizen and government in this country should be altered.

It is interesting to note that no other country that is a member of an international organization is altogether bound by a treaty as the United States is. Most countries have to implement treaties by act of legislation or by decree. In the United States, however, all the provisions of a treaty become ipso facto the law of the land once the treaty is ratified by the Senate. Then it may lie fallow until it reaches the Supreme Court in a specific case. The Court by its decision applies the treaty specifically.

It would seem that the conflict of powers could best and most speedily be resolved if the Bricker amendment were passed and ratified by the States. There is no sound reason for delay.

The Washington Line: With "Pence" in sight in Korea the surplus war material buyers are in frenetic action, already. (Oh, Mr. President!) . . . Arthur F. Burns (the new Council of Economic Advisors pressy) is "close to the now," is says here. . . . Their intimates tell you the recent crack in N.Y. State rent ceilings created a chill between Gov. Dewey and U. S. Atty. Gen. Brownell. Dewey feels he was the public's patsy following the 15 p.c. blanket increase. Smashed glasses against walls, etc.) Temper, temper. . . . Eisenhower sincerely wants to keep his campaign pledge of revising the McCarran-Walter Immigration Law. But he knows Congress will not go along as of now. He will try again when other pressing matters have been settled.

In the Tennessee William play, "Camino Real," there is a line referring to "The Bird Circuit." . . . The liquor authorities have discovered "The Bird Circuit" is the nickname for bars and joints which invite the patronage of the town's whoopys. . . . The ABC Board is carefully scrutinizing all hooch licenses issued to places featuring the name of some bird. . . . This does not refer to spots using the word "bird" itself but to places which have peacocks, parrots, swans, pheasants, canaries, etc. in their names. . . . The Stock Club is the top exception. Looking At Life —by Erich Brandeis

The following observation being somewhat gruesome, I would advise you to turn to the next item if you feel at all squeamish. You may have often envied the wealth of your neighbor, or of someone you knew as a child, who has become a millionaire.

The other day I read of a man and his wife who live out in Colorado somewhere. They had an old water well that had been dry for many years.

Suddenly this well started to spout oil in an enormous geyser and splashed all over the house.

The woman at first was very mad. "Look at this mess," she said to her husband. "This mess is making you a millionaire," the husband replied.

So the woman, heretofore an excellent housekeeper, did not even bother to wipe off the mess.

But that isn't what I wanted to tell you about, at all.

I said you may have envied your wealthy neighbor. And at the same time you may have wondered, perhaps, why your own husband or why you yourself can't become rich. Arent' you just as smart as the other fellow?

"What has he got that I haven't got?" you may say to yourself.

Let me tell you what he's got that you haven't got: NOTHING.

At least not in the opinion of the Biology Department of New York City's College, a regular purchaser of human bodies.

They pay exactly the same for YOU! that they would pay for a millionaire or a billionaire—$220. And, like all other things, the price for you has also gone up considerably. In 1948 you could have gotten only $175 for yourself.

Now don't go rushing to City College and put yourself up for sale. They don't want you alive. As a matter of fact, they only want your skeleton. And they may not be able to use you at all. They need only a few a year for experimental purposes. And the last two they purchased were foreigners.

The department also needs frogs. They need frogs even more than they need human beings. They use about 5,000 frogs a year.

The price on frogs has gone up too. They now bring 25 cents each as compared with 15 cents a year ago.

On the other hand, cats have gone down in price. Last year they were worth $59 a dozen. This year they pay only $55 a dozen for them. Not a large decrease, but at least a beginning.

The department also uses pigs and lobsters. Don't ask me what for. They just use them, that's all.

There may not be much sense to this information.

But it just illustrates the actual, physical value of the human being as such—stripped of all its pretensions, its conceits, its superstitions, its worries. It shows its value on the hoof, so to speak.

And, since I don't want to discourage you, there IS some reason for conceit here at that.

After all—the human value is $220 EACH as compared with $55 a dozen for cats.

Ain't that SOMETHING?

Try and Stop Me —by Bennet Cerf

At a movie studio last summer, reports Bob Sylvester, life was enlivened by weekly baseball pools. Each of sixteen actors or actresses drew out of a hat a pill representing one of the major league teams, and paid a dollar for it. Marilyn Monroe had been taking other pills to cure a cold and as a scene was being rehearsed, she took one from her purse and gulped it. Suddenly she realized that she made a mistake. "Help!" she cried. "I just swallowed the St. Louis Browns!"

"The treaty-making power is an extraordinary power, liable to abuse. Treaties make international law and also they make domestic law. Under our Constitution, treaties become the supreme law of the land. They are, indeed, more supreme than ordinary laws for Congressional laws are invalid if they do not conform to the Constitution, whereas treaty law can override the Constitution. Treaties, for example, can take powers away from the Congress and give them to the President; they can take powers from the States and give them to the Federal Government or to some international body, and they can cut across the rights given the people by the constitutional Bill of Rights."

This, it seems, is a correct view of the situation as it now exists, and that Senator's amendment is designed to correct, Mr. Dulles' view is accepted by most constitutional lawyers.

The first three provisions of the proposed amendment read:

"Section 1. A provision of a treaty which denies or abridges any right enumerated in this Constitution shall not be of any force or effect.

"Sec. 2. No treaty shall authorize or permit any foreign power or any international organization to supervise, control, or adjudicate rights of citizens of the United States within the United States enumerated in this Constitution or any other matter essentially within the domestic jurisdiction of the United States.

"Sec. 3. A treaty shall become effective as internal law in the United States only through the enactment of appropriate legislation by the Congress."

The fourth provision deals with "executive or other agreements" and applies the same rule to them.

Our new international associations require some fundamental adjustments in the relationship of treaties to our political structure as defined by the Constitution. It was never intended that the United Nations, for instance, should legislate for the American people or abridge their rights. While it may be sound to join such an organization, it cannot be proper that by the mere act of joining it, even by treaty, the relations between citizen and government in this country should be altered.

It is interesting to note that no other country that is a member of an international organization is altogether bound by a treaty as the United States is. Most countries have to implement treaties by act of legislation or by decree. In the United States, however, all the provisions of a treaty become ipso facto the law of the land once the treaty is ratified by the Senate. Then it may lie fallow until it reaches the Supreme Court in a specific case. The Court by its decision applies the treaty specifically.

It would seem that the conflict of powers could best and most speedily be resolved if the Bricker amendment were passed and ratified by the States. There is no sound reason for delay.

$180,064 Pledged To Date In YMCA Building Fund Campaign

Special Gifts Make Up Major Part Of Total

First report meeting of YMCA fund campaign workers last night showed the halfway mark already passed in the $350,000 drive.

Nearly all the total $180,064 pledged so far was reported by the Special Gifts Committee, and included the $125,000 given by the S. S. Kresge Foundation.

Special Gifts Committee Chairman C. R. Gillam reported a total $175,200 in special gifts. This is 97.3 per cent of all the funds collected in the present drive to date.

Collections by campaign teams add up to $4,864 or 2.7 per cent of the total collected to date. Campaign teams results were reported by Holt Wyckoff, co-chairman.

Speaker at the session at the Penn-Stroud Hotel, Stroudsburg, was Clarence Mease, general secretary of the Orange, N. J., YMCA, who declared a battle for "men's minds" was going on in today's world.

Material wealth was "not enough," he said, adding that the YMCA was a fine tool for working with youth. Building of the Monroe County YMCA would be a "memorial to our generation," he said.

There were reports from divisions, teams and individuals. Flag for high section went to John Fine, Section B; bacon for high division was given to Max Stadfeldt, Division Three; the sole of honor a worn-out shoe sole—was awarded to Clinton Boushell, Team 11, high team; hostesses Mrs. Christie Shull and Mrs. Howard Flieger, Division Seven, won candy for best division attendance.

Wyckoff offered a prize of a dressed chicken to the team captain reporting highest returns at the next meeting.

Second of the five report meeting will be at 6:15 p.m. Friday at the Penn-Stroud. Recognition will be given to "quota-busters" and "quota-buster" teams.

Voters May Decide County's Role In Airport Development

The question of county aid for a municipal airport at Mount Pocono may go on the ballot in November.

Whether it will depend on how the "problem of Federal and State aid for the project is resolved.

That was the conclusion yesterday at a conference between county commissioners and members of the Mount Pocono Airport Authority.

Representing the authority were R. LeRoy Dengler, Clifford R. Gillam, Charles James and Rodger Miller. Purpose of the conference, Dengler said, was to devise some way of helping to push through the appropriation set up in the Civil Aeronautics Administration budget.

Exactly what sum has been earmarked for Mount Pocono Airport in the CAA budget is not known, Dengler said. It might be anything from $150,000 down to $10,000. The CAA appropriation is a blanket appropriation for development of municipal airports. It is now being reviewed by Congress.

Also unknown at the local level is whether the State has or will set aside any funds to lump with the Federal aid if it's granted.

Airport funds are on a 25 per cent-25 per cent-50 per cent basis, with the State theoretically matching whatever the local group puts up, and the Federal government matching both.

If the Federal put up $10,000, the State may put up $5,000 and the local Authority already has its $5,000. The resulting $20,000 would pay for extending the present grass runway a thousand feet, Dengler said. Larger grants would allow for a more ambitious project. The goal: to bring all-weather commercial airline service to Monroe County.

Depending on whether or not grants are made in any quantity, commissioners may put the question of county assistance in developing the airport on the ballot.

First such issue to be made since 1945 and the interest yield is highest since 1933 when 3½ per cent liberty bonds were distributed.

Camporee To Be Held At Playground

Annual Boy Scout Camporee will be held May 16-17 at Stroudsburg playground.

That was the decision last night of the Pocono District of the Delaware Valley Council, meeting at Stroudsburg Municipal Building.

Report on location of the camporee was by Jacob Kintz, chairman of camping and activities committee. Assisting at the camporee will be members of Alpha Phi Omega, scouting fraternity at the State Teachers College.

Roger Dunning was in charge of the session. Ray Hartman, district commissioner, reported the need for more attention to advancement programs. Edward Zalesky, Alpha Phi Omega, discussed activities at the college. William Schiebel, institutional representative went into the development of a new troop at First Presbyterian Church.

A basic course for cub leaders, cub masters and den mothers will be held on April 28.

It was also reported that there's still time for scouts to register for the annual jamboree to be held July 17-23 at Irvine Ranch in California. For local scouts, the cross-country trip would be about three weeks, total, with sight-seeing stops along the way in both directions. The trip would start at Easton.

Details are available at local scout headquarters.

County Takes Request Under Advisement

Commissioners "took" under advisement" yesterday a proposal that the county pay $23,696 toward replacing Fifth Street Bridge in Stroudsburg.

Stroudsburg Solicitor George T. Robinson told commissioners the bridge will cost about $200,000. Estimates are based on figures submitted by State Highway Department.

The bridge was a county-owned bridge, and Broad St., a borough street until the State took over both.

Robinson, accompanied by Borough Engineer Edward C. Hess and Burgess Hal H. Harris, said borough representatives had met with R. E. Boyer, district engineer for the State, last Wednesday.

Boyer said the State was pressing for a $23,696 contribution toward cost of the bridge, so it can proceed with construction, and wanted an answer by today.

"We don't expect you to answer tomorrow," Robinson said, but added that the borough hoped for as speedy a decision as possible.

Costs broke down mostly as $14,456 for curb and gutter work; $3,445 for intersecting sidewalks and related items; and $5,800 for storm sewers to connect the proposed lines with existing lines, and for property damages.

Commissioners Anzi F. Altomose, W. Adolph Rake and Granville Shiffer said they would study the request.

Bill To Protect Guards Proposed

Harrisburg (AP) — The administration sought last night to make it tough for inmates who hold hostages in a prison riot.

Rep. Edwin M. Tompkins (R-Cameron) sponsored a bill to provide for life imprisonment in solitary confinement and a $10,000 fine for such an act.

The legislation was introduced to head off prison riots such as hit Western State Penitentiary at Pittsburgh and the Rockview State Prison last January.

In both outbreaks, prisoners held a number of guards in hostage as a club in an effort to obtain better food and changes in the parole system.

Stroudsburg Borough Crew Reports Back To Work

Stroudsburg municipal services functioned yesterday—with all street, garbage collection and sewer plant employees back on the job. Sole exception was Arthur Altomose, foreman.

After receiving Friday morning's demand for a pay increase coupled with a refusal to work unless one was forthcoming, Borough Council directed that a new foreman be hired and a new crew obtained.

First step was to contact a foreman prospect. Francis Brodhead, Stroudsburg, former foreman on the highway department was contacted. Mr. Brodhead is expected to start work when the next pay period begins Wednesday.

Meanwhile workers appeared Saturday morning with an offer to return to work. The matter was promptly cleared with borough officials and yesterday was fixed as date to return to work.

Progressive Women Raised $2,266 For Welfare In Year

Saylorsburg—Summary of the year's work marked the meeting of the Saylorsburg Progressive Woman's Club held Wednesday night at Chestnuthill High School, Brodheadsville. Mrs. Marvin Krome, retiring president, announced that through the co-operation of the members, $2,266.10 had been raised during the past year for different welfare organizations.

Mrs. Lizzie Fetherman reported on the Brownie group which the club sponsors; Mrs. Thomas Reinhart reported on the teen-age dances, another project of the club. Mrs. Krome asked for volunteers to serve as Girl Scout leaders since a number of the Brownies are ready to become Girl Scouts.

Other community projects listed included a first aid class to begin April 13 at the Brodheadsville firehall; a civil defense meeting for April 15 at Chestnuthill High School, and the cancer drive. Mrs. Frederick Trumbour spoke on the importance of the cancer crusade both for education and research.

Club activities during the next few weeks will include the county federation meeting on May 8 at Buck Hill Falls with the Barrett Woman's Club as hostesses with reservations to be made through Mrs. Krome not later than Wednesday, April 7.

Mrs. Krome also announced that a few seats were left on the bus chartered by the Barrett Woman's Club for a trip to the United Nations if members of the Saylorsburg Club wished to go.

The annual banquet of the Progressive Woman's Club will be held at Green View Guest Farm, Sciota, with a dinner at 6:30. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Lydia Howerter, Mrs. Newton Davenport or Mrs. William Gould. Mrs. Madelyn Maloney will give several readings.

The new year was inaugurated by the installation of new officers with Mrs. Clarence Budge, first president of the club in charge of the installation ceremonies.

Tribute was paid to the services given by the retiring officers over the past two years: President, Mrs. Marvin Krome; vice president, Mrs. Elmer Veety; recording secretary, Mrs. Theodore Thompson; financial secretary, Mrs. Andrew Schaffer, and treasurer, Mrs. Myron Snyder.

The program for the meeting last week was arranged by the conservation and gardening committee of which Mrs. Lydia Howerter is chairman.

Andrew G. Brenneis, assistant regional forester of the division of information and education, was introduced by Mrs. George Hafler, program chairman. He spoke on Water and how it was affected by land uses and practices, urging care of forests and land preventing water waste. He showed a colored movie in sound, "The Water of Coweeta" which gave in dramatic form the findings of 20 years of field work and research in watershed management on the Tennessee river banks.

Mrs. Hafler also presented Miss Rosemary Gruber and Miss Nancy Gruber, of Nazareth, who played eight selections on the marimba.

After the meeting, refreshments were served in the cafeteria where the tables had been decorated with Spring plants. Mrs. Carl Kresge, Mrs. LeRoy Shupp, Mrs. James Gould, Mrs. John Shiffer, Mrs. Homer A. ## Gideons Tonight

The Gideons of the Stroudsburg will meet tonight at 7:30 at the home of Kenneth Wiley, 82 Brown St., East Stroudsburg.

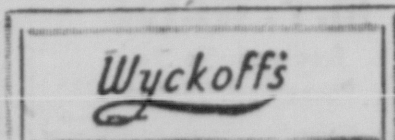

To many of us, Holland is the land of tulips, wooden shoes and wind mills, but to our Wyckoff travelers, returned yesterday after four wonderful weeks in Europe, the little nation will always be associated with the crocus and steaming cups of coffee. It was just a bit too early to see tulips... except at the flower show... but there were acres and acres of the colorful, down-to-earth flower that heralds spring everywhere—even here in our own front yards. And Dutch coffee, we are told, is like no other coffee in the world! Naturally one drinks one cup after another all day long.

Every minute of the trip... barring a few rough days at sea... was delightful, one gathers. The poverty of many French provinces was touching... the desolation of war, even in Germany, was heartrending... and England was properly conservative and British. But it was Holland that seems to have won the hearts of everyone. A land of flowers, picturesque landscapes, and well-fed, happy people it appeared in reality just as good and entrancing as it seems in the travel booklets.

Fortunately for those of us who cannot see these things for ourselves, there is still a way to bring a bit of Holland to America. The simplest answer, and the most glorious, is by planting some of those gladioli bulbs from Beatrice Gorgy's department in one's yard. Shipped here from the Netherlands, they are extra-large, and extra-healthy. Bea tells me it isn't any job at all to sell these bulbs. Those who have had them in the past, invariably return for more, and tell enthusiastically how vigorous they are and how elegantly they bloom. The fact of the matter is, when it comes to gardening, you just can't beat the Dutch. Beats the Dutch maybe, but it's true!

Edna Brockman tells me that the most thrilling part of the trip to her was the visit she paid the tiny German town where her father was born. Her arrival was a complete surprise to her relatives, but an interpreter made it possible for them to have a pleasant visit. Since Edna enjoyed her European jaunt so much, I'm almost certain that she'll be plugging European vacations for all of her Travel Bureau customers. What about a honeymoon in Holland, by the way?... And while we're talking on a global scale, I'd like to mention the new Nelly Don dresses in French voile that Mardee Wyckoff unpacked yesterday. Sheer as silk, these do a backdrop into the days of my childhood when voile was one of the smartest and most durable of fabrics. It's a welcome and pretty sight, designed in a wide range of half sizes... The smartest lounging pajamas of the season is a Tommie's creation now displayed in our lingerie department. It has a gathered, elbow-length (or possibly three-quarter) sleeve, and pedal-pushers. Cuffs, collar and trousers are of figured chintz, while the top is a solid color broadcloth. You have your choice of either red or black with white. Tommie's advertise that they can't furnish "the prime," but they can give glamour to a sleeping beauty. Well, they've furnished two "prints," and they're just as charming.

Tonsilectomies Performed For 18 Children

Eighteen out—282 to go.

That's the box score of the tonsilectomies being performed for Monroe County school children in the General Hospital, East Stroudsburg.

Started March 23 as a project of Monroe County Nurses Association, the mass tonsil operations resulted in six on that date, another half dozen March 30 and six more yesterday.

Dr. Thomas I. Metzgar, who is collaborating with Dr. William Simons in the schedule of operations, performed the surgicals yesterday at 6 a.m. Nurses reported immediately and served on a 'round-the-clock basis in the children's ward at the hospital.

Nurses and physicians offered their services to help county children, Mrs. Anne Shafer, nurses association president, announced. The hospital also is assisting by providing the children's ward and the county Child Health Service is cooperating with Miss Helen Kulp, executive secretary, supplying lists of children in need of tonsil operations.

The figure of 300 children in need of tonsilectomies was set after a school survey and represents the backlog of several years, it was disclosed. Children are being screened by physicians and those in most dire need of the operation are being listed first, the nurses said yesterday.

Some of the 300 will not come under the current program, since their parents may have arranged for other operations, it was stated. But the scheduling will continue. No date has been set for the next series of operations.

Nurses assisting in the last two projects have been Claire Sniffin, Arlene West, Marion Swegart, Betty Brader, Mary DeVore, Mary Learn, Marion Field, Martha Kintz, Ann Gorski, Marge Fadden, Janet Stine, Marge Boote, Peg Loney, Catherine Lambert and Mrs. Shafer.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Reish were heard in a special musical selection and Mrs. Roger Mansfield pleased the audience with a solo. Another group of singers sang a number. Those in the group were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Reish, Mrs. Fred Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Reish, Mrs. Elwood Fenner, Mrs. Owen Reish and Mrs. Donald Reish. Miss Emma Piyer gave a reading. ## 339 Members Enroll To Date In C. Of C.

Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce membership campaigners sent total returns yesterday to 339 members at $40 each.

Reports at a noon report meeting came up with 104 renewals at $40 each and 32½ new membership units at the same price.

The 136½ reported yesterday with those previously reported brought total to date to 339.

The 339 are composed of 257½ renewals and 81½ new memberships.

Yesterday's report meeting ended the contest among solicitors to see who will receive top award of a trip to Florida.

It did not end the campaign, however. There are still some 400 prospect cards in the hands of workers.

A special clean-up committee will continue to press the work of contacting the remaining 400 prospects during the next two weeks. H. G. Sanborn Jr., campaign chairman and Dale H. Learn, chamber president, both expressed pleasure over the success of the campaign.

They indicated that the clean-up work will probably be successful in bringing the final result up to expectations.

Campaigners pointed out that the 81½ new membership units is almost half of the original goal and the total figure is about half the total of renewals and new membership units.

Shafer Arrested For Non-Support

Fresh Air Youngsters Coming To Poconos Friday, June 26

With Spring supposedly just around the corner, kids in the big town are shining their mahners in preparation for the fourth year of visits to their friendly hosts in the Poconos.

Friday, June 26 is the date set for arrival of youngsters from New York City in the annual Fresh Air program sponsored by the New York Herald Tribune and backed here by The Daily Record and Radio Station WVPO.

Mrs. John Wilson, chairman of the fresh air program for this section disclosed yesterday preliminary plans have been completed and her committee awaits word from localities desiring children this Summer.

The youngsters ages range from five to 12, but persons who had children in previous years may accept the same boys and girls up to 16.

Deadline for submitting applications for the entertainment of the metropolitan area children is June 12, Mrs. Wilson said.

The children arrive here by train and stay for two weeks, or longer if their hosts wish. Last year 76 children were entertained in area homes and Mrs. Wilson looks for this year to top that mark. Inquiries may be made to Mrs. Wilson, 1222 Dreher Ave., Stroudsburg.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

It is virtually a certainty that the Catasauqua-Stroudsburg baseball game won't be played at Gordon Giffels field on Friday as scheduled. A portion of the bleachers is still on the infield and rain for three of the past four days has made further work virtually impossible. Work got under way far too late to ready the field for the opening Lehigh Valley League tussle, although the task might have been completed after a fashion if the weatherman had co-operated.

This scribe was informed last night by a man well versed in resodding and reconditioning baseball diamonds that it would take one month to repair the Gordon Giffels field infield correctly. The W. Main St. field will be made playable much sooner than that and could be ready for the second scheduled home game. If the task had been pressed as soon as the Stroudsburg school board had given its approval, the field would be ready for play right now.

If a field can't be obtained for Friday's tussle, it is quite possible that the Mountaineers will have to forfeit the opening contest of the campaign and put the club in a real hole as far as repeating as the Lehigh Valley League title holder is concerned. Stroudsburg High will present a gym exhibition next week. Recent rains are proving harmful to every baseball team in Monroe County. Indoor practices aren't nearly as beneficial as outdoor drills.

Harry Janson, Tannersville, and Charley Engel, Jr., Swiftwater, are planning to be among the crowd watching today's National League clash between the Giants and Phillies, at Connie Mack Stadium. Tannersville's baseball club fed over 200 people at last Saturday's Chicken Supper. All proceeds will be used to cover the expense of operation during the coming Summer months. Tannersville is a member of the Pocono Mountains League.

Father Robert Galligan, of the Pocono Missions, is a close friend of Jim Piersall, the highly regarded outfielder for the Boston Red Sox, who is attempting one of the toughest comebacks in baseball history this year. Jim visited Father Galligan in Mt. Pocono before taking off for Florida last fall. East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, as in the past, won't be allowed to start an inning after 5:30 p. m. this season. This is a Normal Hill ruling that has disrupted several ball games in recent years.

Jim Passaro, combination pitcher, infielder, outfielder, had four hits and two walks in seven times at bat in last Saturday's practice tussle between two ESSTC squads. Lloyd Wescoe, a reserve catcher on the ESSTC diamond squad, is a transfer from Bloomsburg State Teachers College. Lloyd also held down positions on the Normal Hill soccer and swimming teams during the present school year.

Bill Bruton, rookie center fielder who had such a great day for Milwaukee yesterday, played on the same Eau Claire, Wis., entry in the class "C" Northern League as Harry Warner in 1950. Warner is a resident of Readers and is currently with Jacksonville, Fla., of the class "A" South Atlantic League. The Sally lough opens its season today. Harry Oblitz, very popular golf pro at Shawnee Inn, is currently hard at work planning a fine golfing season for the local resort.

Same Officials To Guide Slate Belt Hot Stovers This Year

Bangor—Fifty members of the Slate Belt Hot Stove League held a social gathering here at the Jacksonian Democratic Club last night, at which time a buffet luncheon was served.

It was decided during the course of the gathering that all of last year's officers would serve for another year. The official slate lists Nick Zito, president; Dominic "Spag" Spagnola, vice president; Tony Clstone, secretary; and Carl Hutchinson, treasurer.

The Slate Belt Hot Stove League at the present time has 175 members and the organization has limited its membership to 200.

Banquet
It was decided at the meeting to hold the second annual Hot Stove League banquet at the Tatamy Fire House again this year. A date will be decided in the near future.

The group voiced its approval in Little League and American Legion baseball and reportedly went on record as willing to aid both brands of baseball if such support becomes necessary.

Joe Bucher, well known baseball fan in Bangor, was in charge of last night's social event.

Blue Mountain League Reduced To Six Teams

East Bangor Latest To Quit Ranks

Roseto—The Blue Mountain Baseball League found itself with only six teams last night at a regularly scheduled meeting held here at the Marconi Club.

East Bangor, although not represented at the meeting, informed correct sources that it officially will not operate during the coming campaign. No official reason was given for the late action.

The departure of East Bangor brings to three the number of teams that have dropped out of the circuit since last September. Stockertown and West Bangor are the other clubs that have decided not to operate this season.

Martins Creek is the new entry in the circuit, with Portland, Pocono A.C., Tatamy, Johnsonville and Roseto back for another campaign.

Schedule
Armon W. Williams, secretary of the league, was asked to draw up a new schedule this week. The old slate is void due to the fact that it was constructed for a seven-team circuit.

The group approved the Blue Mountain Umpires Association for the coming campaign and reviewed player contracts.

Tuesday, May 5, has been set as the deadline for signing players.

All six teams remaining in the circuit were represented at the meeting. Fred Tedesco, vice president, was in charge of the meeting in the absence of Woodrow A. Jones, league president.

The next circuit meeting will be held on Monday, April 27, at the Italian Social Club, in Martins Creek.

Patterson Gains Verdict

Brooklyn, N.Y., (AP) — Floyd Patterson, unbeaten 1952 Olympic middleweight champion, weathered a blistering body fire last night to win a split eight-round decision over rugged Dick Wagner, Toppish, Wash., flailer.

It was the sixth straight professional win for the Brooklyn Negro but Wagner was the first opponent to last the route.

Patterson weighed 166½, Wagner 175½.

The rousing battle at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena was Patterson's toughest fight. He had knocked out five previous opponents since he turned pro last September.

Scoring
Judge Bert Grant scored the fight for Patterson 6-2 and Judge Joe Agnello had the Olympic grad out front 5-3. Referee Teddy Martin, however, gave Wagner a 4-3 edge with one round even. The AP card found for Patterson 4-3-1.

There were no knockdowns. Viewers on a television network (Dumont) that beamed the fight to some sections of the county saw Patterson's speed and sharp punching power earn a narrow edge over the persistent body punching of the 26-year old veteran of 49 fights.

Ballerina
Poised as a ballerina, the lighter Williams kept up a steady drum-fire of deadly lefts.

The 10-round decision never was in doubt. He often landed as many as 10 punches without replay from the Trinidad heavyweight. Williams weighted 191½, Adams 204.

Williams Earns Nod Over Adams

Leicester, England (AP) — Johnny Williams, British and Empire heavyweight champion, easily outpointed Ansel "Baba" Adams of Trinidad in a superb display of boxing skill last night.

Braves Happy Over Initial Nod Of Season

Cincinnati (AP) — You would have thought the Milwaukee Braves had won the first game of the World Series from their actions yesterday after they edged Cincinnati, 2 to 0, in the opening game of the National League baseball season.

"That's number one," they shouted as they hustled into their dressing room.

"Yea, and more to come," said another.

Praise

Then, as they got to the locker room, they pounced on pitcher Max Surkont, a "youngster" of just 30 years.

But this town, which loves baseball as only Brooklyn does, had its more than 30,000 loyal rooters out to see their beloved Redlegs go down to defeat for the fourth successive time in a season opener.

Friday Set For Zaharias Surgery

Beaumont, Tex. (AP) — "Babe" Didrickson Zaharias will undergo an operation next Friday in an effort to cure a malady that threatens to halt her athletic career.

Martin

The St. Louis Browns bought the contracts of Larsen and catcher Boris "Babe" Martin from their San Antonio farm club of the Texas League. Both had been with the Browns in spring training.

Cavilan Back In Action Against Minelli

Cleveland (AP) — Welterweight Champion Kid Gavilan, regarded by many as the sharpest fighter in the ring today, goes back into action tonight in a 10-round non-title bout with Livio Minelli of Italy.

The champion was such a prohibitive favorite, the bookies weren't even quoting odds, but matchmaker Larry Atkins was far from unhappy over the bout's one-sided aspect.

Helps Crowd

With no television or radio to compete with and the Cleveland Indians-Chicago White Sox opener to help draw sports fans to the city, Atkins predicted a crowd of 10,000.

Hogan Receives Praise From Ike

Augusta, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower started a vacation of golf here yesterday after congratulating Ben Hogan on his record-shattering victory in the Masters Tournament.

An Eisenhower aide said the President and Hogan, who won the Masters Sunday with a spectacular 274 for 72 holes at the Augusta National course, warmed up on the first tee in advance of Eisenhower's round over the same course yesterday.

Not Allowed
Reporters are barred from the Augusta National course when the President plays there.

In reply to a question, Hagerly said Eisenhower failed to break 90 for 18 holes, but he declined to give out his score.

Cards Acquire Anderson

St. Louis (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals yesterday bought catcher Ferrell Anderson, 35, who hit .299 last season with Toronto of the International League, from their Rochester farm club, Rochester, also in the International League, acquired Anderson from Toronto last week.

everywhere you go -

electric cooking is giving new meaning to the word "thrifty". Electric cooking "thrifty" means savings in food and nutritional values. You use less water, electrically... thus, there's much less shrinkage in meats and vegetables and less loss of vital minerals and vitamins.

Equally important, electric oven heat is accurately controlled...once you choose the proper heat and set the automatic timer, there's no loss through burning or over-cooking. And electric heat from surface units goes directly into pots and pans...none is wasted around the sides. You get all the heat you pay for, electrically!

Thousands and thousands of Central Eastern Pennsylvania homemakers, such as the four electric-wise ladies above, have found out about electric "thrifty" from personal experience. They know it's a fact...how about you? Order your electric range today...and enjoy cooking the "thrifty" way!
